COMPETITION HITS MARKET PRICES AND VALUES ARE DOWN

Fair to Good Grades of Meat
Available at Reasonable Figures.

By P. Q. Foy.
Special Food Expert of The Evening World.

The increase in the competition among the large meat and vegetable markets was more in evidence last Friday and Saturday than for some years past. Several new markets are being opened in the Harlem district, mostly on the East Side, most of them offering a fair to good grade of meat at rather attractive prices. Old Washington Market is cutting profits and is selling all kinds of meats at a smaller margin of profit than for the past two years, while the new Municipal Market in the old Richard Webster Building was doing a satisfactory trade last Saturday, with both the quality and prices of meats and fish favoring consumers. Another large market in West 125th Street had made a deeper cut in profits than last week. The reluctance of consumers to take advantage of the low prices and desirable quality of ordinary cuts of meats was in evidence in every direction. Good mutton chucks, fresh out, were tagged at 10 to 12½, while chucks and breast cuts of spring lamb that cost 24 to 25c by the carcass were offered at from 12½ to 15c. Similar cuts were selling at 25c to 27c a pound one year ago. Stewing beef and chuck and pot roasts were obtainable anywhere from 12½ to 22c, according to the location of the store. One large market in Harlem had chucks of mutton tagged at 10 cents, and when the attention of the manager was called to the price and quality of the meat he replied: "Those sheep cost 15 cents, and customers paid from 22 to 25 cents for the loin and rib chops, and I could have sold three times the quantity I had of those cuts, but no one wants the stew or chuck parts."

One of the leading butchers in Washington Market explained that the lack of demand for the ordinary cuts of roast and stew meats was due to the shortage and high prices of coal, and that consumers only wanted the broiling or tender roasting parts, but he looked for a larger outlet for cheap meats when the weather turns cold. A temporary shortage of fish may result from a shutdown by the wholesalers in Fulton Market that was scheduled for today. The Carriers and Weighers' Union notified the wholesalers that unless their demands for increased pay were met a general strike would be called on Tuesday. The wholesalers determined not to open up their stands this morning, which was the programme late on Saturday night. This action if carried out by the wholesalers will paralyze the business, as the wholesalers control the fish in the freezers, and with these houses not open for business it will be impossible for the average fish market to obtain supplies of either fresh or frozen.

The holdings of storage eggs, as indicated last Saturday, bear out the admission of The Evening World for the past eight months. Merchants were inclined to look for a heavy export demand, which is still in abeyance, and with nearly 7,000,000 cases of eggs of thirty dozen each in the warehouses which must be consumed by February at the latest if the food value of the product is going to be conserved, a serious problem confronts them. There are nearly two and one-half billions of eggs which must be consumed by about 15,000,000 of our population. Nearly two months ago The Evening World was tendered ninety cartloads of eggs at 49 cents a dozen, candied and delivered at any point in Greater New York, providing the city Market Commissioner would sell them to the consumers at 50 cents a dozen, to be sold in conjunction with the army foods the government had that department. If the Market Commissioner had rendered this service for the public, it would have saved them nearly $100,000 that offer alone. Besides, the recent artificial advance in storage eggs would have been prevented. The identical lot of eggs offered to the consumers through the city, at 49 cents a dozen, candied, is now retailing at 50 cents a dozen.

This was the basis for the campaign carried on by The Evening World to educate consumers to buy storage eggs for what they really were, and the results have been most gratifying, as thousands of consumers who were suspicious of any product held in storage are now insisting on getting storage eggs and frozen roasted chickens. The service rendered the Hebrew housewives by the publication of the wholesale and fair retail prices of kosher chickens and red meats by The Evening World has been greatly appreciated not only by the consumers, but by the large distributors. The latter claimed that the small kosher retail butchers were the ones who were profiteering the most, which proved true upon investigation. Kosher dressed fricassee chickens should not cost the housewife more than 28 cents, and desirable birds can be sold at a profit at 35 to 37 cents, while broiling chickens should not retail for more than 35 cents. Kosher dressed red meats are in better demand, but should not cost more than 22 to 24 cents on the boiling cuts, while 30 to 35 cents should be the extreme prices on the kosher steaks. Creamery butter is held at rather extreme prices, but prices are declining slightly. A sharp cut in prices is due on the surplus army beef, mutton and pork shoulders. The army loins are selling rapidly and the available supply in this zone is about gone, but loins are still held in the freezers in the West, which will find an outlet in the seafood markets.

A NATIONAL BUSINESS STORE

It Opens To-Day and Is for Workers and Executives.

The National Business Show opens to-day at the 49th Regiment Armory and will continue until next Saturday. It is planned to make it the biggest exhibition of its kind ever held in New York.

More than sixty of the leading manufacturers of office appliances and devices are exhibiting their wares. Numerous post-war features in office equipment and administrative methods are being shown. Innovations made necessary to solve war time problems are also being found efficient in peace time. The last word in labor-saving machines for every branch of business will be displayed and demonstrated. To-day is set aside for students of business. Wednesday and Friday there will be special exhibits and demonstrations for executives.

WOMEN AS PRESBYTERIANS.

Whether women shall have equal rights with men in all the functions of membership in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, is to be determined by a canvass of the Presbyterians of the country. Three questions are to be decided:

1. Whether women shall be ordained to the eldership.
2. Whether women shall be ordained to the ministry of the church.
3. Whether women shall have the same rights as men in the sessions, presbyteries, synods and assemblies of the church.

Want to Feel Just Right?

— Take an NR Tonight —

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "lumpy" head, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

TROUBLE IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your over-worked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Pills, oil, salts, calomel and ordinary laxatives, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test. Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every way. If habitually or occasionally constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week. Then you'll not have to take medicine every day. Just as occasional NR Tablets after that will be sufficient to keep your system in good condition—keep you feeling your best.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c—Adv.

Deep-Seated Coughs

develop serious complications if neglected. Use an old and time-tested remedy that has given satisfaction for more than fifty years.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE POISON THEMSELVES

Auto-intoxication is the result of accumulation in the system of poisons. Thousands of people are poisoning themselves in just this way. When their condition becomes dangerous they try to overcome it by using harsh methods. The rational thing to do is to not allow your system to get in such condition. Bowel's Laxative Fruit Rolls are the natural way to avoid self-poisoning. They are made with real fruits and have the dainty, delicious, fruity taste of a rich confection. They are efficacious, yet gentle. Children love for a taste. For sale at all drug stores. Package of 6 rolls, 15c. Write for free sample Bowel's Rolls, 216 West 14th St., New York—Adv.

Eyesight Dim?

If your eyesight is dim, your vision blurred; if your eyes ache, itch, burn or feel dry, get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets from your druggist, dissolve one in a fourth of a glass of water and use to bathe the eyes from two to four times a day. Bon-Opto has given stronger eyes, clearer, sharper vision and relief to thousands.
